

Moon Magick

On May 7, five planets are in the constellation of Taurus: Venus, the Sun, Jupiter, Uranus, and the Moon. The Moon, representing the activity in any electoral chart, is particularly auspicious as it is in exaltation in Taurus. This suggests that things are likely to develop favorably. The promising aspect is that finances are highlighted today, as Taurus governs money, resources, and possessions. However, there's a downside—it's a new Moon phase. What does this imply? It means there might be a period of uncertainty surrounding your endeavors. Questions like whether you'll succeed, if your plans will come together, and if you have enough resources may linger.

You might have a brilliant idea and an immense drive to succeed, which is commendable! I'm not suggesting your plans will fail, but you might encounter obstacles initially. It often takes time to find the right path, and even then, results may take longer than anticipated.

You can succeed, especially noting the Moon's conjunction with Jupiter and Uranus. However, you might be a novice just starting out or delving into a completely new territory that hasn't yet been fully explored or defined.

Taurus is also about relationships because it is ruled by Venus. So, if you are seeking love, this New Moon promises fruition.

The plus side of this is that New Moon Magick, done today, will be very powerful!

Timing

First, we need to time the work. The New Moon occurs at different times in different locations. You can always Google it, "New Moon Times May 7, In (Your City & State)"

For this Moon, I've already put this together across the U.S. When you follow the link you will see the "Target" This is the time you will want to do the Work.

I also determined the Planetary Hours, which are necessary to know. They tell us what Intent will be the most successful.

When you go to the page to get the Time of Working, note the Planetary Hour. Below, we'll set the Intentions that will be the most empowered.

Time Your Magick Work

Intentions

First of all, the New Moon is in Taurus, which is ruled by Venus. This makes the first part of our Intention to attract something towards us.

It's Tuesday, so it's a Mars Day. Use Mars energy to have the courage and energy to do whatever is necessary to materialize your dream.

Then we'll want to consider the Planetary Hour. You can put the time off until you are in a different Planetary Hour. However, sticking with the time of the New Moon will be the most effective. Here are the Intentions that work with the different Hours under a Taurus Moon.

Sun

- Career Advancement
- Letting Your Light Shine

Moon

- Increasing Receptivity
- Increasing Creativity

Mercury

- Perfect Discernment
- Receiving Information

Venus

- Attracting Money

- Attracting Love

Mars

- Energize
- Courage

Jupiter

- Success
- Expansion

Saturn

- Stability
- Longevity

Now we have our Keywords. We put them together to create the Intention.

Intentions always start with "I Am Grateful"

Next, we'll add words honoring Venus and Mars.

"I Am Grateful to have Fearlessly Attracted"

Now, we honor the Planetary Hour. I will give some examples, but you can add what you think fits.

Sun - "I Am Grateful to have Fearlessly Attracted, with the power of my Light"

Moon - "I Am Grateful to have Fearlessly Attracted and become completely Receptive to"

Mercury - "I Am Grateful to have Fearlessly Attracted, with perfect Discernment"

Mars - "I Am Grateful to have Fearlessly Attracted, with the boundless Energy I possess"

Jupiter - "I Am Grateful to have Fearlessly Attracted an Expansion of"

Saturn - "I Am Grateful to have Fearlessly Attracted, a Stable"

Now add the word that describes what you want: The Perfect Job, A Greater Income, Love, Peace, Radiant Health. Your choice.

Finish the Intent with I Am Grateful for it is done, it is done, it is done.

What We Do With This

At the time of the New Moon, light a pink or green candle. Pink is for love, and green is for money-related Intentions. Both colors are associated with Taurus.

Now, write down your Intention. You'll want to write three times, at least.

1. Write it on a Post-it note and place it on the side of your bathroom mirror.
2. Write it once on a piece of paper you will burn when you finish. If you don't have a fireplace, try burning it in the kitchen sink. The sink is safe for burning small pieces of paper.
3. Write it once on another piece of paper or in your journal. In fact, you can write it as many times as you want.

Vision your dream materializing. Keep envisioning it until you feel what it will feel like when you have created this in your life.

This is a simplified version of New Moon Magick. But it is a good start!

Blessings
