On a Moon Day

I did not send out a New Moon Working because this month's Full Moon is very intense. With several intense planetary placements, there is a lot of work to do.

Here's a description of what to expect.

Prepare for erratic emotions and conversations that may not align with the true feelings. It's crucial to look beyond the surface and identify the undercurrent in these dramatic exchanges.

Male and female energy is very unbalanced, yet sexual tension might feel like extreme attraction. However desire and follow through is suppressed.

overconfidence, especially concerning narcissistic drives and ambitions. If you know a narcissist, which we all do, expect them to be out of control. Pay attention to the impulse because it shows you where to make changes. However, changes made now, especially taking on new things, will likely blow up in your face down the road.

Individuals born in the middle of March, June, and September will particularly feel the effects of this intense Full Moon. For those born in mid-December, the experience might feel like being placed on a cross.

None of this is bad. Unless we let it be, it all leads to a change in the collective mind. That change leads to paths that will take us out of the crisis mode we have been stuck in since the pandemic. There is great creative energy when the Planets are in this much tension. Since Mercury is retro, this is a great time to finish artistic projects. It is a great time to envision what you want to materialize. But remember, not a time for action. It is a true let go, let the Universe moment.

Crystals in the mix

For this work, I am recommending three stones.

- Moonstone and Sunstone - Full Moon's are always the Moon opposite the Sun. Because of the intense energy of this Full Moon, we are using these crystals to work towards creating balance and express the joy of both the Sun and the Moon.
- The third Crystal depends on your purpose.

THE RITUAL

At the appropriate time, light the candles. Place a drop of cypress, rosemary, rose and lavender oil on each of the candles. This is my recipe for a Blessing Oil. It is gender and elementally balanced.

Write down the affirmation. Write it three times, one of those three times on a post it note to place on your bathroom mirror. Burn one of the written affirmations, either in your fireplace or kitchen sink. Place the third written affirmation in your pocket during the day, under your pillow when you sleep.

Speak the affirmation out loud. Vision the outcome you seek. Allow yourself to feel what having this come to you will be like.

Let the candles burn down all the way, and place any residual wax in the fire place. If a fireplace is not available, bury the material.

It is done.

Keep the Crystals with you until the next Full Moon, in your pocket by day, under your pillow when you are asleep. Whenever you think about your desired outcome after this work, stop yourself from any negative thoughts by re-envisioning the outcome and giving thanks.
