Rev. Diane of The Sanctuary

Live Your Best Life!

Hello <<First Name>>!

Your New Moon Magick Working

New Moon In Gemini June 6

Conjunct Venus - Nice

Squaring Saturn? Not so nice

On a Jupiter day - Cool

Creating Stability

I Am Grateful to attract (venus) a stable (saturn) _____ and am willing to accept my responsibilities (kissing saturn to invite his softer side) to nurture and support (moon), expanding (jupiter) with discernment (mercury ruler of gemini) my _____. I give thanks for it is done, it is done, it is done.

Timing

Last month we went over timing. You can review the timing information Here. In fact, you can reread the entire Newsletter from last month Here What those sources will not tell you is when the New Moon will occur for you. For me, here in Cali, it' at 5:38 am. You can find out when the New Moon will occur where you are located by visiting Time and Date You can also get me to Time it for you for only $20!

Adding Light

Now we will add Candles! Candles are an integral part of Magickal Workings. So this time we will add a candle for all of the Planets involved. Purple for Jupiter, the day of the New Moon. Black for Saturn, the Planet Squaring the Moon, Light Pink or Light Green for Venus. Choose Pink if you are materializing Love, Light Green if you are materializing financial gains. We will also use a White Candle for protection, a Yellow one because the Moon is in Gemini, and a Blue one to honor the Moon herself. To learn more, visit Candles In Magick Work.

The Ritual

At the appropriate time, light the candles. If you are manifesting Love, place a drop of Rose oil on each of the candles. If you are manifesting financial gains, place a drop of orange oil on each of the candles.

Write down the affirmation. Write it three times, one of those three times on a post it note to place on your bathroom mirror. Burn one of the written affirmations, either in your fireplace or kitchen sink. Place the third written affirmation in your pocket during the day, under your pillow when you sleep.

Speak the affirmation out loud. Vision the outcome you seek. Allow yourself to feel what having this come to you will be like.

Let the candles burn down all the way, and place any residual wax in the fire place. If a fireplace is not available, bury the material.

It is done.
